Section 16(a) of the Hyderabad Forest Act, No II of 1355 F provides that in the absence of a Forest Court, the appeal shall lie to the Subedar. The decision made by the Subedar in appeal shall be final. But a revision may be preferred to the Govt in the RD against the order of the Subedar.

The post of the Subedar in Hyderabad area corresponds to the post of the Divl Comm. and it is but right that the Divl Comm. be made the appellate authority. The revision which lay to the Govt in RD would of course lie to the MRAT.

Draft at page 7 is revised.

Under section 16(a) of the Hyderabad Forest Act, appeals from orders of the Forest Settlement Officer shall lie to a Forest Court established under section 17 and if such Court has not been established, to the Subedar. By the Mysore Adaptation of Laws Order, 1956, for "Subedar" in this section the words "the Mysore Board of Revenue" have been substituted. Hence, the appellate authority when a Forest Court has not been established was the Mysore Board of Revenue which in turn has been changed to the Mysore Revenue Appellate
